Book Review: The Films in My Life - Film Comment The Films in My Life is a document of wild, irrepressible energy that, accordingly, lacks a certain degree of structure, discipline, and rigor. Reading it, you start to suspect that the short review was a form well suited to Truffaut’s early-blooming talents; any longer, perhaps, and he would have started to burn out. The Films in My Life by François Truffaut - Goodreads The Films in My Life. François Truffaut (1932-1984), perhaps the most respected member of the New Wave group of French moviemakers, left a legacy of beloved and influential films that include The 400 Blows, Jules and Jim, Stolen Kisses, Day for Night and The Story of Adele H. Equally fascinating is the very large body of film criticism Truffaut wrote... In My Life Ending/A Heart Full of Love sheet music for ...
